INTRODUCTION

Ardgillan College delivers a six-year cycle from first year to sixth year. The Board of Management recognises that child protection and welfare considerations permeate all aspects of school life and must be reflected in all of the school's policies, practices and activities. Accordingly, the Board of Management of Ardgillan College will fully comply with its statutory obligations under the Children First Act 2015 and other relevant legislation relating to the protection and welfare of children. The Board has adopted and will implement fully and without modification the Department's Child Protection Procedures for Primary and Post Primary Schools 2017 as part of this overall Child Protection Policy.

For the purposes of these procedures the Board of Management has nominated the Principal Nuala Ní Mhurchú as the Designated Liaison Person (DLP) and the Deputy Principal Niall O'Connor as the Deputy Designated Liaison Persons (DDL) for the college.

WRITTEN ASSESSMENT OF RISK OF ARDGILLAN COLLEGE

In accordance with section 11 of the Children First Act 2015 and with the requirement of Chapter 8 of the Child Protection Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools 2017, the following is the Written Risk Assessment of Ardgillan College.

MISSION STATEMENT

Ardgillan Community College promotes a happy and caring community where students are encouraged and supported to reach their full potential. Teamwork, respect and the pursuit of excellence form cornerstones of the college philosophy. The ethos of the college is based on respect, tolerance and understanding while appreciating the diversity of our changing world. The college aims to provide a broad education for all students and to nurture their individual abilities and talents.

Ardgillan College's motto is 'Mol an Óige agus Tíocfaidh Sí' (Praise the young and they will flourish).

BRIEF HISTORY OF ARDGILLAN COLLEGE

Ardgillan College is a post-primary school serving the growing community of Balbriggan, County Dublin and the surrounding townlands. The college is named after Ardgillan Castle and Demesne which is located close by. The college crest, designed by the students, contains a lighthouse representing Balbriggan, a castle with light beaming from its windows, representing Ardgillan Castle and the light of knowledge, and an acorn symbolising life and growth. The wording on the crest – mol an óige agus tíocfaidh sí - is very appropriate because it underpins the philosophy that children prosper when they are praised and supported.

The college opened in 2009 and is based in Castlelands, Balbriggan. It is a multi-denominational, co-educational Community College under the patronage of Dublin & Dún Laoghaire Education and Training Board.
